Index

Absence (vacation or sickness), lack of uniformity in law, 224.

Accounting and auditing control: (Oklahoma), 89, 90; (Ohio), 1; system (Pennsylvania), uniform establishment and functioning of, 122–4.

Administrative Code: civil, purpose of, 157, 160; Ohio, 107; Pennsylvania, 112, 118, 261; provisions of, 80; purchasing before adoption, 298; after, 299.

Administrative officers, handicaps of, 255.

Administrative Control in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Morris B. Lambie, 94–105.

Agnew, P. G. Results of Standardization of Supplies, 269–71.

Agriculture, Department of, how should function, 183, 184; problems of, 185, 186.

Anderson, Mary. Personnel Equipment in Factory Inspection, 321–8.

Applicants, rating of, 315.

Application of Comparative Unit Costs to the Highway Engineering Business. William H. Connell, 128–30.

Appropriations, former, criticisms of, 69; (Pennsylvania) methods of prior to Administrative Code, 118.

Assembly of Civil Service Commissions, 316.

Auditor of State (Ohio), powers of, 103.

Baish, H. H. Retirement Systems and Morale in Public Service, 338–50.

Banks, attitude of toward public deposits, 148.

Bank examiner, necessity for competent, 357; qualifications for, 358–60.

Barnum, C. L. Standardization of Printed Forms and Stationery, 286–91.

Barth, Harry A. Trend in County Revenues, The, 22–30.

Basic Principles of Personnel Management in Government Economy. Henry S. Dennison, 328–30.

Beyer, William C. Hire of Firemen and Policemen, The, 235–47.

Bills, method of discounting (New Jersey), 294.

Blachly, Frederick F. and Miriam E. Oatman. Fiscal Control in Oklahoma, 84–93.

Bonus, soldier, 330; world war veteran, 13.

Borrowing, state and municipal, 19.

Bruère, Mr. Henry, 70.

Buck, A. E. Development of the Budget Idea in the United States, The, 31–9.

Budget in Business, The. Arthur Lazarus, 56–68.

Budgets and Financial Control in the National Forest Service. Roy Headley, 51–6.

Budget: accomplished by, 69–71; not accomplished by, 71; should be accomplished by, 72–4; city, classified, 70; executive, 32; Federal, interest aroused by, 56; idea, extent of adoption, 34; in business; diversity of enterprises, 57–68; wide appeal of, 56, 57; law (Oklahoma), 84; defects in, 85–8; making, aid given by duties classification, 218; (Massachusetts) preparation of, 95; report of, 96–8; national, 35; planning, beginning of, 31; practices of, other states, 114–8; preparation of, 42–9; pro-forma statements, 47; supervision, meaning of, 112; system (English), 33; essentials of, 35–9; establishment of, widespread, 120; in state governments, 75; national, establishment of, 40; success of, 50; theories regarding, 32; time, national forest service, 52.

Bureau: of the budget, creation of, 41; of Municipal Research: New York, efforts of, 69; Philadelphia, questionnaire sent by, 235.

Business: Federal Government, lack of uniformity in, 220; matters, government regulations in, 178; need for measuring service rendered in, 128.

Cabinet officers, what duties of should be, 159.

Call, George Shiras. Fiscal Control of State Expenditures, 75–84.

Cameron, Peter G. Securing Competency in Bank Examiners, 357–61.

Cash operations, government, 147.

Centralization, federal, problems of, 180.

Centralized Purchasing in Governments of United States and Canada. Russell Forbes, 272–86.

Charity, public and private concern of, 135.

Charities, state, expenditures for, 12.

Charts, prepared by state and financial departments (Pennsylvania), 77.

City-manager plan: results of, 199–201; stimulus to centralized purchasing, 279.

Citizenship, rural, 193.

Civil Service Commission: Chicago, 206; classification plan followed, 248; first duty of, 213; Massachusetts, limitations of, 103; New Jersey, classification plan of, 248; New York, eligibility for, 352; results of political régime, 307–10; selection for appointments, procedure in, 222; examinations, posting of, 313; need for pension system in, 332; requirements for factory inspection, 324–6; tests: 311; technique of, 313–5.

Civil War, conditions following, 333.

Classification and Salary Standardization Movement in the Public Service, The. Fred Telford, 206–15.

Classification of Positions and Salaries in

Index

Absence (vacation or sickness), lack of uniformity in law, 224.

Accounting and auditing control: (Oklahoma), 89, 90; (Ohio), 1; system (Pennsylvania), uniform establishment and functioning of, 122–4.

Administrative Code: civil, purpose of, 157, 160; Ohio, 107; Pennsylvania, 112, 118, 261; provisions of, 80; purchasing before adoption, 298; after, 299.

Administrative officers, handicaps of, 255.

Administrative Control in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Morris B. Lambie, 94–105.

Agnew, P. G. Results of Standardization of Supplies, 269–71.

Agriculture, Department of, how should function, 183, 184; problems of, 185, 186.

Anderson, Mary. Personnel Equipment in Factory Inspection, 321–8.

Applicants, rating of, 315.

Application of Comparative Unit Costs to the Highway Engineering Business. William H. Connell, 128–30.

Appropriations, former, criticisms of, 69; (Pennsylvania) methods of prior to Administrative Code, 118.

Assembly of Civil Service Commissions, 316.

Auditor of State (Ohio), powers of, 103.

Baish, H. H. Retirement Systems and Morale in Public Service, 338–50.

Banks, attitude of toward public deposits, 148.

Bank examiner, necessity for competent, 357; qualifications for, 358–60.

Barnum, C. L. Standardization of Printed Forms and Stationery, 286–91.

Barth, Harry A. Trend in County Revenues, The, 22–30.

Basic Principles of Personnel Management in Government Economy. Henry S. Dennison, 328–30.

Beyer, William C. Hire of Firemen and Policemen, The, 235–47.

Bills, method of discounting (New Jersey), 294.

Blachly, Frederick F. and Miriam E. Oatman. Fiscal Control in Oklahoma, 84–93.

Bonus, soldier, 330; world war veteran, 13.

Borrowing, state and municipal, 19.

Bruère, Mr. Henry, 70.

Buck, A. E. Development of the Budget Idea in the United States, The, 31–9.

Budget in Business, The. Arthur Lazarus, 56–68.

Budgets and Financial Control in the National Forest Service. Roy Headley, 51–6.

Budget: accomplished by, 69–71; not accomplished by, 71; should be accomplished by, 72–4; city, classified, 70; executive, 32; Federal, interest aroused by, 56; idea, extent of adoption, 34; in business; diversity of enterprises, 57–68; wide appeal of, 56, 57; law (Oklahoma), 84; defects in, 85–8; making, aid given by duties classification, 218; (Massachusetts) preparation of, 95; report of, 96–8; national, 35; planning, beginning of, 31; practices of, other states, 114–8; preparation of, 42–9; pro-forma statements, 47; supervision, meaning of, 112; system (English), 33; essentials of, 35–9; establishment of, widespread, 120; in state governments, 75; national, establishment of, 40; success of, 50; theories regarding, 32; time, national forest service, 52.

Bureau: of the budget, creation of, 41; of Municipal Research: New York, efforts of, 69; Philadelphia, questionnaire sent by, 235.

Business: Federal Government, lack of uniformity in, 220; matters, government regulations in, 178; need for measuring service rendered in, 128.

Cabinet officers, what duties of should be, 159.

Call, George Shiras. Fiscal Control of State Expenditures, 75–84.

Cameron, Peter G. Securing Competency in Bank Examiners, 357–61.

Cash operations, government, 147.

Centralization, federal, problems of, 180.

Centralized Purchasing in Governments of United States and Canada. Russell Forbes, 272–86.

Charity, public and private concern of, 135.

Charities, state, expenditures for, 12.

Charts, prepared by state and financial departments (Pennsylvania), 77.

City-manager plan: results of, 199–201; stimulus to centralized purchasing, 279.

Citizenship, rural, 193.

Civil Service Commission: Chicago, 206; classification plan followed, 248; first duty of, 213; Massachusetts, limitations of, 103; New Jersey, classification plan of, 248; New York, eligibility for, 352; results of political régime, 307–10; selection for appointments, procedure in, 222; examinations, posting of, 313; need for pension system in, 332; requirements for factory inspection, 324–6; tests: 311; technique of, 313–5.

Civil War, conditions following, 333.

Classification and Salary Standardization Movement in the Public Service, The. Fred Telford, 206–15.

Classification of Positions and Salaries in

THE SERVICE OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA. Richard H. Lansburgh, 261–8.
Classification: essentials of, 219; need of in federal service, 221; plan (Chicago), 206–14; major points in, 254; structure (Pennsylvania), 264–6; tentative, of work, 256.
Class specifications, 256.
Collateral security on public deposits, 147.
Commission: on administration and finance, on economy and efficiency, President Taft's, 32; (Massachusetts), creation of, 94; criticisms of, 104; commissions, popularity of, 156; weaknesses of, 157.
Comparative unit costs, engineering, application of, 128, 129.
Compensation plan, development of in New Jersey, 250; problems attending, 258–60.
Comptroller, Massachusetts, work of, 99.
Conferences, welfare department (Pennsylvania), 127; zone, 133.
Confusion, Illinois state government, 156.
Congress: demand of for present retirement law, 336; resistance of to retirement system, 331.
CONNELL, WILLIAM H. Application of Comparative Unit Costs to the Highway Engineering Business, 128–30.
Constitution, intent of framers of, 173.
Coolidge, President, Interest in budget message of, 31; budget message of, 43.
County Excise Board, duties and power, 90–2.
Courts, state, necessity for coördination in, 163.
Cox, Governor, budget report of, 96.
COYLE, JOSEPH M. Operation of Centralized Purchasing in New Jersey, 291–305.

Dawes, General Charles G., 35, 49, 56.
Debt, Sectional increases, 25–7; United States, 7; state increases, 13.
Deficiency appropriation, 75.
DENNISON, HENRY S. Basic Principles of Personnel Management in Government Economy, 328–30.
Treasury, federal deposits, 152.
DEVELOPMENT AND ADMINISTRATION OF CLASSIFICATION AND COMPENSATION PLANS IN NEW JERSEY. Charles P. Messick, 247–53.
DEVELOPING BUDGETARY CONTROL IN RELATION TO THE STATE INSTITUTIONS OF PENNSYLVANIA. Clement W. Hunt, 120–8.
DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUDGET IDEA IN THE UNITED STATES, THE. A. E. Buck, 31–9.
District of Columbia, first municipal purchasing agency in, 272.
DODD, WALTER F. Reorganizing State Government, 161–72.
Dollar inflation, result of, 27.
DOYLE, JOHN T. Federal Civil Service Requirement Law, 330–8.
Duties classification, results of absence of, 217.

EARNINGS OF PUBLIC WELFARE INSTITUTIONS IN RELATION TO THE ECONOMIES OF ADMINISTRATION AND PHYSICAL, MENTAL AND SOCIAL REHABILITATION OF PATIENTS. Ellen C. Potter, 135–46.
Economy, false, 329.
Education: expenditures, state, 12; government aid, 178; increase in costs of, 20; educational institutions, budget supervision of, 112–4.
Efficiency ratings, value of, 210.
Employe: government service, assignment of and training of, 222; condition of, 335; statements re work, 210, 255.
EMPLOYMENT TESTS IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE. Albert Smith Faught, 311–21.
Estimates: board of, hearings before, 43, 45.
Expenditures: city, 16–8; county, 88; federal, 1; increases: state and government, 8,155; increases, con. public welfare, 228; methods of estimates, 2, reasons for, government, 14, for state, 10–4; reductions in, 2.
Experimentation in government, 181.

Factory inspection, qualifications, 322.
FAIRLIE, JOHN A. Reorganization in Counties and Townships, 187–94.
FAUGHT, ALBERT SMITH. Employment Tests in the Public Service, 311–21.
FEDERAL CIVIL SERVICE RETIREMENT LAW, THE. John T. Doyle, 330–8.
Federal: activities, methods of expansion of, 175–7; authority, extent of, 172; expansion, extent of, 177–9; government, position of regarding retirement system, 337; Personnel Board, establishment of, 225; Retirement Law, 330; defects of, 336; provisions of, 335.
FILER, HERBERT A. Need for Correlation of Personnel Activities in the Federal Service, The, 220–6.
Finance: department of (Illinois), 160; (Ohio), 107, 109.
Financial conditions and progress, private and state, 75; policy, adoption of by president, 42; questions, news value of, 15; savings, New Jersey purchasing department, 295.
Fire Department, New York City, 355; service, grades, 235.
First School District of Pennsylvania, 154.
FISCAL CONTROL IN OHIO. R. E. Miles, 105–12.
FISCAL CONTROL IN OKLAHOMA. Frederick F. Blachly and Miriam E. Oatman, 84–93.
FISCAL CONTROL OF STATE EXPENDITURES. George Shiras Call, 75–84.
Fiscal control: highest development in, 94; of federal expenditures, 83; Ohio, results of, 110–2; Oklahoma, 84; purpose of, 76–83; results of, 83, 84.
Food production vs. population, 183; urgent problem of, 183.
FORBES, RUSSELL. Centralized Purchasing in

Governments of United States and Canada, 272–86.
Forest: fires, disastrous, 53; Service, budgetary plans of, 53–6; national, distinction between and other federal organizations, 51; problems of, 185.
Friday, Professor David, 71.

General appropriation act, Massachusetts, 98.
Gladstone, significance of statement of, 31.
Government: City, 195, 197; business, complexity of, 155, 162; development of, 120, 161; departments of national, 158; employe and, 350; enterprises, 328; functions, changes in, 3; increase in, 171; sphere, early attempts to limit, 174; reorganization of in Illinois, 150; rural: changes, 188; problems of, 187.
Governor of Utah, action of regarding prison industries, 133.
Graft elimination, through standardization, 270.
GRUENBERG, FREDERICK P. Interest on Public Deposits—a Phase of a Larger Question, 147–54.

HAAS, FRANCIS B. Supervision of the Budgets of State Educational Institutions, 112–20.
HALF-TIME BUDGET METHODS. Lent D. Upson, 69–74.
Hamilton, Alexander, 272.
Harding, President, budget policy of, 42, 45.
Hatton, Professor A. R., 69.
HEADLEY, ROY. Budgets and Financial Control in the National Forest Service, 51–6.
Health, Department of in New York City, 356.
Highways: construction of, 5; extensive program, 14; growth of, 11.
HIRE OF FIREMEN AND POLICEMEN, THE. William C. Beyer, 235–47.
HOW SHALL SALARIES OF STATE EMPLOYES BE FIXED? Clyde L. King, 202–6.
HUNT, CLEMENT W. Developing Budgetary Control in Relation to the State Institutions of Pennsylvania, 120–8.

Immigrant inspection, examinations for, 320.
Incompetency, reasons for in bank examiners, 358.
Institutions, public and private; earnings from inmate labor, 136–8; examples of, 140; state, reorganization of, 120.
INTEREST ON PUBLIC DEPOSITS—A PHASE OF A LARGER QUESTION. Frederick P. Gruenberg, 147–54.
International, Federation of Working Women, resolutions of, 322; Labor Conference, 323.

Job study of state positions (Pennsylvania), 262.

KING, CLYDE L. How Shall Salaries of State Employes Be Fixed? 202–6.
KLEIN, PHILIP. Professional Service and Salaries in Public Welfare Departments, 226–34.

LAMBIE, MORRIS B. Administrative Control in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 94–105.
LANCASTER, LANE W. Trend in City Expenditures, The, 15–22.
LANSBURGH, RICHARD H. Classification of Positions and Salaries in the Service of the State of Pennsylvania, 261–8.
LAZARUS, ARTHUR. Budget in Business, The, 56–68.
Law enforcement, lack of (Illinois), 156.
Leadership, need for by governors, 166.
Liquor traffic, government regulations of, 178.
Lord, General H. M., 35, 49.
LOWDEN, FRANK O. Reorganization in Illinois and Its Results, 155–61.

MACDONALD, AUSTIN F. Trend in Recent State Expenditures, The, 8–15.
Makeup, printed forms and stationery, standardization of, 286–8.
Marshall, Chief Justice, 172.
Massachusetts, experiments of in government problems, 94.
McCarthy, Charles, 33.
MERIAM, LEWIS. Uses of a Personnel Classification in the Public Service, The, 215–20.
Merit system, 215; advocacy of, 310; ratings, use of in promoting employes, 223.
MESSICK, CHARLES P. Development and Administration of Classification and Compensation Plans in New Jersey, The, 247–53.
METHODS OF DEVELOPING AND ADMINISTERING CLASSIFICATION AND COMPENSATION PLANS IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE. Fred Telford, 254–61.
MILES, R. E. Fiscal Control in Ohio, 105–12.
Morale: breakdown of, 308; raising of, 130.
Morals and Health, public, government regulations of, 178.
MURRAY, THOMAS C. Promotion in the Public Service, 352–7.

National Guard, use of, 10.
Natural resources (state), appropriations for development of, 11.
NEED FOR CORRELATION OF PERSONNEL ACTIVITIES IN THE FEDERAL SERVICE, THE. Herbert A. Filer, 220–6.
New York Bureau of Municipal Research, 31.
Norton, William J., 141.

OATMAN, MIRIAM E. and FREDERICK BLACHLY. Fiscal Control in Oklahoma, 84–93.
Oral interview, 312.
Organization, aid given by classification, 219.
Occupational therapy, results from, 138.
Official reports, simplifying, 170.

OPERATION OF CENTRALIZED PURCHASING IN NEW JERSEY. Joseph M. Coyle, 291–305.
Opposition to New Jersey Civil Service Commission, 249.

Paper and grade standardization, 289–91.
Pay: rates of and allowances, firemen, 238–40; police (municipal), 240–3; (state), 244–6; establishing, 218.
PAXTON, EDWARD T. Trend of Reorganization in City Government, The, 195–201.
Penal institutions, control over, 131.
Pensions: expenditures in, 6; firemen, 239; military, 330; police (municipal), 243; (state), 246.
Per capita costs, Pennsylvania institutions, variations in, 124–6; earnings, hospitals, 143.
PERSONNEL EQUIPMENT IN FACTORY INSPECTION. Mary Anderson, 321–8.
Personal service control, method of, 101–3.
Personnel: administration, qualifications for successful, 253; classification, 215; inventory, government service, establishment of, 224; permanent, development of, 170.
Pinckney, Charles, 174.
PLACE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE IN THE REORGANIZATION OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, THE. Henry C. Wallace, 182–7.
Police force, grades, 240, 244.
Policy, problem of continuity of, in states, 168–70.
Politics, elimination of from bank examiner appointments, 358.
Political conditions, rural, 188; influences, 217.
Politician as personnel manager, motives of, 306.
POLITICIAN AS PERSONNEL MANAGER—THE COST TO THE TAXPAYER. Leonard D. White, 306–11.
Positions, eligibility for New York Civil Service, 352.
POTTER, ELLEN C. Earnings of Public Welfare Institutions in Relation to the Economies of Administration and Physical, Mental and Social Rehabilitation of the Patients, 135–46.
Powers and duties of officers (state government, Ohio), 102–9.
PREPARATION OF THE NATIONAL BUDGET, THE. Henry P. Seidemann, 40–50.
Present-day trend government progress, 272.
President, burdens of, 158; responsibility of for budget estimates, 35, 40–2, 50.
Prison system: attempts and difficulties of development, 132; ultimate gain from, 134.
Probation officer, employment of, 226.
Problems of state government, 163–5.
PROFESSIONAL SERVICE AND SALARIES IN PUBLIC WELFARE DEPARTMENTS. Philip Klein, 226–34.
Progress in governmental improvement, 163.
PROMOTION IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE. Thomas C. Murray, 352–7.
Promotion: lines, non-advancement in, 212; opportunity for, in New York Civil Service, 353; results of, 354–7; providing opportunities (government service), 223.
Public purchases, standardization in, 270; deposits; improvement in, 150; interest on, 147; education, relationship between and teachers' salaries, 232; services, 186; expenditures on, 13; Utilities Commission (Illinois), 159; Welfare Department, establishment and activities of, 227; works, expenditures, 4.
Public Welfare Departments, organization of, 120; Pennsylvania, 122; aid given by, 126.
Publications and printing, problem of control of Massachusetts, 103.
Purchase of supplies, New Jersey method of, 291, 295.
Purchasing, centralized: beginnings of, 272; counties and cities, 278–83; for institutions (Pennsylvania, New Jersey), 303; in governments of United States and Canada, 273–5; in states, 275–8; department, New Jersey conferences of, with using agency, 296; essentials of sound, 283–5; municipal agencies, 281; Ohio, central control of, 110.

Questionnaire, value of, 255.

Recreation, expenditures for, 13.
Reinstatement government employ, 224.
Reorganization: governmental, 182; progress in administrative, 165–6.
REORGANIZATION IN COUNTIES AND TOWNSHIPS. John A. Fairlie, 187–94.
REORGANIZATION IN ILLINOIS AND ITS RESULTS. Frank O. Lowden, 155–61.
REORGANIZING STATE GOVERNMENT. Walter F. Dodd, 161–72.
RESULTS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA PLAN FOR STANDARDIZATION AND PURCHASING SUPPLIES. Walter G. Scott, 298–305.
RESULTS OF STANDARDIZATION OF SUPPLIES. P. G. Agnew, 269–71.
RETIREMENT SYSTEMS AND MORALE IN PUBLIC SERVICE. H. H. Baish, 338–50.
Retirement law: (federal employes), 225; systems, digest of, 343–50; present state-wide, 339; study of, 338; ways of operating, 342–3.
Roads, need for good rural, 188.
Rosa, Dr. Ed. B., investigations of, 1.
Rural, areas, variety of, 189–92; organization, defects, 192.

Salary, adjustments, New Jersey, 250; classification, results of, 205; deductions of government employe, 336; gradations (Pennsylvania), 262; public welfare comparisons, 231–4; ranges and grades (Pennsylvania), 266.

Salaries: average bank examiners, 360; classification, 261; decrease in state, 9; inequalities in Pennsylvania, 204; methods of fixing state employe, 202–4; need for adequate, Women's Bureau, 327.
Sanitation and health (state), appropriations for, 11.
SCOTT, WALTER G. Results of the Pennsylvania Plan for Standardization and Purchasing Supplies, 298–305.
SECURING COMPETENCY IN BANK EXAMINERS. Peter G. Cameron, 357–61.
SEIDEMANN, HENRY P. Preparation of the National Budget, The, 40–50.
SELF-SUPPORTING PRISONS. E. Stagg Whitin, 131–5.
Sick leave, granted by government, 351.
Size paper, standardization of, 288–9.
Slave traffic, regulating, 175.
Social investigation of patients, policy of (Pennsylvania), 142; service (hospital), savings through, 139; workers, requisites to attract, 230; trained hospital, 142.
Soldier appointees, after Civil War, 334.
STANDARDIZATION OF PRINTED FORMS AND STATIONERY. C. L. Barnum, 286–91.
Standardization: meaning of, 269; of printed forms, 286–91; of products, benefits from, 269.
State: Board of Affairs (Oklahoma), 88; factory inspection, place of, 321; forests, conservation of, 146; owned general hospitals (Pennsylvania), 140; subsidy (Pennsylvania), 142.
Statute, New Jersey, 291.
STUART, R. Y. Vacation and Sick Leave in Government Service, 350–1.
SUPERVISION OF THE BUDGETS OF STATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS. Francis B. Haas, 112–20.
Supreme Court of Ohio, decision of, 109.

Taft, President, 333.
Taxation figures, 27.
TELFORD, FRED. Classification and Salary Standardization Movement in the Public Service, 206–15; Methods of Developing and Administering Classification Plans in the Public Service, 254–61.
Tenure of office, governor, Ohio, 110.
Tests: Civil Service, 216; discussion of, 316; expert mechanic, New Jersey, 316; in industry, 312; low and high salaried, 318; police sergeant, New Jersey, 317.
Thurstone, L. L., 311.
THOMPSON, WALTER. Trend Toward Federal Centralization, 172–82.
TREND IN CITY EXPENDITURES, THE. Lane W. Lancaster, 15–22.
TREND IN COUNTY REVENUES, THE. Harry A. Barth, 22–30.
TREND IN FEDERAL EXPENDITURES, THE. Charles P. White, 1–8.
TREND IN RECENT STATE EXPENDITURES, THE. Austin F. Macdonald, 8–15.
TREND OF REORGANIZATION IN CITY GOVERNMENT, THE. Edward T. Paxton, 193–201.
TREND TOWARD FEDERAL CENTRALIZATION, THE. Walter Thompson, 172–82.

United States Personnel Classification Board, 214.
UPSON, LENT D. Half-Time Budget Methods, 69–74.
Urban population, growth of, 22.
USES OF A PERSONNEL CLASSIFICATION IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE, THE. Lewis Meriam, 215–20.

VACATION AND SICK LEAVE IN GOVERNMENT SERVICE. R. Y. Stuart, 350–1.

WALLACE, HENRY C. Place of the Department of Agriculture in the Reorganization of the Federal Government, 182–7.
War costs and activities, 6, 7.
Washington, President, 272.
Wembridge, Harry A., 312.
WHITE, CHARLES P. Trend in Federal Expenditures, The, 1–8.
WHITE, LEONARD D. Politician as Personnel Manager—The Cost to the Taxpayer, 306–11.
WHITIN, E. STAGG. Self-Supporting Prisons, 131–5.
Work of Wards (prisons), value of, 131.
Women, work in citizenship in rural districts, 194; Bureau, United States Department of Labor, qualifications for, 326.

Zone system for institutions, establishment of in New Jersey, 293.